BREACH OF EXPECTED STANDARDS

Sanctions

If a student disregards school regulations, the school will impose "in-house" sanctions.

In-House Sanctions

These can include extra homework, detention. If there are no improvements parents will be consulted and students may be put on report.

The school reserves the right to withdraw school privileges from any student with a poor disciplinary record i.e. school tours, school concerts, sports competitions etc.

Suspensions

Students who disregard school regulations despite interventions may be placed on Internal Suspension. This will involve the student being removed from normal timetabled classes and supervised with work for the period of the suspension (including break and lunch time).

Major violations may result in immediate suspension by the Principal, either internal or external depending on the nature of the violation.

External Suspension involves the student being out of school for the period of the suspension. Parents/Guardians have a right to appeal an external suspension.

Major Violations Include:

- Violent behaviour
- Aggressive behaviour
- Intimidation
- Malicious damage to property
- Stealing
- Verbal abuse
- Inappropriate use of technology
- Direct refusal to obey instructions
- Possession and or consumption of alcohol

This list is not comprehensive and the school reserves the right to impose sanctions for other violations which it considers serious.

Students returning from external suspension must report with Parent/Guardian to the Principal or Deputy Principal before 8.50am on the day of return and the student must give a firm commitment in writing to the person/s affected by the incident that such an incident will not re-occur.

In cases of extreme indiscipline or where other sanctions appear to have failed the matter will be referred to the Board of Management, which has the power to exclude a student. Any proposed exclusion will be carried out in accordance with the NEWB guidelines.

Note: Parents/Guardians and students are asked to note that it is not possible to detail every regulation governing one's behaviour at school. Each student is accepted into the school on the understanding that she comply with the school regulations as detailed in the journal and school policies.

The above school regulations apply when students are in school uniform and/or representing the school. They apply to all students irrespective of age.

I accept the school's Code of Behaviour and all school policies (available on the school website) and I will support the school in upholding the standards set therein.
